

IF I SHOULD FALL BEHIND

Bruce Springsteen (as sung by Linda Ronstadt)

[A] We said we'd walk together, baby come what may
That come the twilight, should we lose our [F#m] way
If as we're [D] walking, hands should slip [A] free
I'll wait for [F#m] you, should I [D] fall behind, wait for [A] me

[A] We swore we'd travel, darling side by side
And we'd help each other, stay in [F#m] stride
But each lover's [D] steps fall, so different-[A]ly
So I'll wait for [F#m] you, should I [D] fall behind, wait for [A] me

BRIDGE:

Now everyone [D] dreams of, love lasting and [A] true
But you and [D] I know what this world can [F#m] do
Let's make our [D] steps clear, that the other may [A] see
And I'll wait for [F#m] you, should I [D] fall behind, wait for [A] me

[A] Now there's a beautiful river, in the valley ahead
There 'neath the oak's bough, soon we'll be [F#m] wed
But should we lose each [D] other in the shadow of the evening [A] trees
I'll wait for [F#m] you, should I [D] fall behind, wait for [A] me

Darlin' I'll wait for [F#m] you, should I [D] fall behind, wait for [A] me
Darlin' I'll wait for [F#m] you / [D] / [A] / [A] ↓
